P.C.

. The challenge to the Securitization Act has since been negatived. Consequently as the main challenge has been rejected, nothing survives in this petition. The petitioner has remedy of preferring an appeal against the notice issued to him.

. However, in terms of the order dated 7.1.2004 there was interim order. That order will continue for the period of four weeks from today. With the above observations, rule discharged. No order as to costs.
